Warrants 1

Apollo Pipes Limited ₹2,760 Cr

NSE

Apollo Pipes has issued a postal ballot notice to seek shareholder approval for increasing its authorized share capital from Rs. 50 crore to Rs. 60 crore. It also proposes to raise up to Rs. 189.10 crore via a preferential issue of fully convertible warrants to non-promoter entities at Rs. 610 each.

Authorised share capital Rs. 50,00,00,000 to Rs. 60,00,00,000 | Face value Rs. 10 | Up to 31,00,000 Fully Convertible Warrants | Warrant Issue Price Rs. 610 | Aggregating up to Rs. 1,89,10,00,000 | Floor Price Rs. 610

> The capital raise brings fresh funds into the company for growth, though it dilutes existing shareholding upon warrant conversion.

Legal/Reg 2

Zuari Agro Chemicals Ltd ₹1,012 Cr

BSE

Zuari Agro Chemicals received an adjudication order from the Goa Registrar of Companies, imposing a Rs 3 lakh penalty on the firm and Rs 50,000 each on four key managers for a directors-responsibility statement breach. The company says the fine has no material financial or operational impact.

Penalty Rs 3,00,000 on company | Penalty Rs 50,000 each on four KMPs | Order ID PO/ADJ/08-2026/GA/02729 | Order dated 24 Aug 2026

> It flags a compliance lapse but the small penalty won’t affect shareholders’ value.
